10     <h1>On Histiaeus</h1>
11     However, according to Herodotus, Histiaeus was unhappy having to stay in 12        Susa, and made plans to return to his position as King of Miletus by 13        instigating a revolt in Ionia. In 499 BC, he shaved the head of his 14        most trusted slave, tattooed a message on his head, and then waited for 15        his hair to grow back. The slave was then sent to Aristagoras, who was 16        instructed to shave the slave's head again and read the message, which 17        told him to revolt against the Persians.
